OMEN ARE BARRED FROM THAW TRIAL

t Starts Over Will Thaw Made.

. THAW RESUMES STAND.

e Proceeds with Struggle to ve Thaw's Will Accepted as Evi- nce of the Unsoundness of Pris- er's Mind.

ashington, Feb. 12.—The follow- statement was given out at the e House on Monday:

The president has communicated Postmaster General Cortelyou now if it is feasable to bar from mails the papers that give the disgusting particulars of the Thaw . He does not know whether it asible, but if it is, he wishes it ."

ew York, Feb. 12.—The opening the fourth week of the trial Mon- brought a new order of things the court room, and all women er than the half dozen active news- er writers, who have followed the e since the beginning, were barred order of Justice Fitzgerald.

uring the two days of last week en Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was on the ness stand, New York women had ded the court, having in some ner solved the problem of getting t the bailiff at the door. Monday rning the women stormed the por- ls again, but in vain.

In the belief that young Mrs. Thaw as again to be the central figure the famous trial, the women were xious to hear the final details of the fe narrative of the prisoner's wife.

Their indignation knew no bounds hen the court officers repulsed them ith the statement that the court's rder excluded every one except such s were working newspapers reporters Many of those who had occupied the front seats during the last week were led to believe that the order could not possibly include them, and they re- mained about the corridors for a long time in the hope that there might be some relaxation of the rules. They were doomed to disappointment, and at last, reluctantly left the building.

As a result of the order barring all women there were several rows of va- cant seats when Justice Fitzgerald took his place on the bench and Har- ry Thaw was called to the bar. The prisoner walked to his place at the counsel's table without a single friendly nod to greet him. No mem- ber of his family was in court.

That the defense would proceed with the struggle to have Harry Thaw's will accepted in evidence, as testi- mony to his unsoundness of mind, was indicated by Mr. Delmas, who asked that J. D. Lyon be called as the first witness of the day. Mr. Lyon was sworn, and stated that he had lived in Pittsburg all his life, and had been engaged in the banking business for more than a quarter of a cen- tury. He is now connected with the Union National bank.

"...u are acquainted with the de- ...ry K. Thaw?" asked Mr.

... objected. He pro- ... proceeding with a new witness while the ex- amination of Mrs. Evelyn Thaw re- mains uncompleted. Mr. Jerome, after a short whispered conference with Mr. Delmas, withdrew his ob- jection, and Mr. Lyon was permit- ted to give his testimony.

Mr. Lyon testified that he held the will till the latter part of November, 1906.

John B. Gleason, of Thaw's coun- sel, was called to the stand. Mr. Gleason said the will had been in his possession since December 11, 1906.

Mrs. Thaw was recalled. Mr. Jerome, on Delmas' demand, produc- ed the note Mrs. Thaw passed to her husband in the Cafe Martin on the night of the shooting. The note passed by Mrs. Thaw to her husband when she saw White at the Cafe Mar- tin on the night of the shooting reads:

"The b— was here a minute ago, but he went out again."

It has been agreed that Mrs. Thaw shall temporarily step aside to permit of the introduction of testimony tend- ing to show the unsound condition of the defendant's mind.

TRAINS MUST RUN ON TIME.

Texas Railroad Commission Makes a New Rule Regarding It.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 12.—The rail- road commission has issued the fol- lowing order:

"In pursuance of notice and hear- ing, it is ordered by the railroad commission of Texas that the folow- ing rules and regulations with refer- ence to the operation of passenger trains be adopted and observed by all railroad companies and receivers oper- ating lines of railway, in the state of Texas:

"Rule 1. Each and every railroad company operating a railroad in this state shall operate over all parts of its line or lines at least one train each way each day, Sundays except- ed, for the transportation of passen- gers.

"Rule 2. Each and every railroad company operating a railroad in this state shall start its passenger trains from points of origin in accordance with advertised schedule, and said trains, except from unavoidable ac- cident thereunto enroute, shall ob- serve and conform to the published schedule as to arrival and departure at the several stations on the line; provided that trains may be held not to exceed thirty minutes at origin or at junction points with other lines to make connections with train on such other lines. Where connections are reliably reported to be more than 30 minutes late, no wait will be made."

Certain exceptions are made to the foregoing where it is known for sat- isfactory reasons the trains in ques- tion cannot meet with the require- ments.

Saratoga Storm Swept.

Delaware Breakwater, Del., Feb. 12.—Storm-swept and leaking, the Pennsylvania schoolship Saratoga, which left Philadelphia Jan. 22, for a winter's cruise in the West Indies, was towed into the harbor here Sun- day in distress by the tug Asa W. Hughes. On January 27, when 200 miles north of Bermuda, the old fri- gate was struck by a northwest gale, which sent the vessel floundering the seas which, for a time, threat- ened to engulf her. For days the Saratoga was hove to, but the seas continued to strike the vessel's blunt bow until a leak was sprung. Com- mander Atwater put all available hands to the pumps, and to the young seamen, credit to every one, they attempted to do all possible to assist in bringing the vessel back to port.

Family Escape Scantily Clad.

Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 12.—Scantily clad and almost overcome by a dense, stifling smoke, the family of A. W. Anderson, general super- intendent of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, escaped from their burning residence. The fire originated in a pile of shavings on the rear porch. The flames spread rapidly, gutting the home before the firemen could reach the scene.

Suffering from Influenza.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 12.—M. Pobiedonostzeff, the former procurator general of the Holy Synod, is con- fined to his bed by an attack of in- fluenza, which rouses some apprehen- sion owing to his extreme age.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES ASK HIGHER WAGES

Southern Railroad Men Want More Pay.

MAY ASK OTHER ROADS ALSO

Employees State that High Cost of Living Makes Increase a Necessity. Say Small Wages Drive Good Men from the South.

Atlanta, Feb. 12.—Now that the conductors and trainmen of the South- ern Railway have secured a consid- erable advance in wages to meet the growing cost of living during this prosperous present, a movement is on foot to also bring about a similar ad- vance in the wages paid to the tele- graphers and block signal operators of the Southern railway. Once this is accomplished, it is expected that plans will be put under way to bring about a raise in wages among the op- erators of other roads in the south.

It is also stated that in addition to a movement to such an end on the part of the signal men of the South- ern railway, the Order of Railway Te- legraphers is also taking up the same matter with regard to all of the rail- roads in the south. This organiza- tion, according to several Atlanta te- legraphers, is also preparing to bring to an issue the light in which the te- legraphers' union is held by the West- ern and Atlantic and the Louisville and Nashville railroads.

Members of the union claim that the Louisville and Nashville discrim- inates against members of the order, and that this is contrary to one of the laws on the federal statute books, known as the Erdman law, and that the matter of contesting their position in regard to this law will be begun very shortly. The members also claim that the railroads are violating other laws of the state and that the attention of the public and the author- ities will be brought to these alleged transgressions.

In the matter of an increase in wages, the telegraph operators say that exactly the same conditions ap- ply to them as to the trainmen and conductors, and that with the presen high prices of the necessities for liv- ing and suporting families, they are unable to continue on the wages which they are now receiving.

These members also state that the block signal operators are now re- ceiving but $50 to $55 a month for 12 hours' work a day, and are compelled to work on Sundays. They state that while such prices are paid in the south, in the north, east and west much better wages are paid, and that as a result the best operators in the south are leaving for other fields. They also say that youngters just starting in to learn the business be- gin in the south, but as soon as they are able to hold down a good job they leave for some road where they can receive much better wages.

Another claim made is that the very heavy traffic, both freight and passen- ger recently, the late trains and other conditions have added greatly to their duties, while their pay is the same, or practically the same as before the expenses of living were what they now are. They also attribute the many wrecks and a good deal of the delay to trains as due to inexperi- enced and incompetent operators. In the securing of better pay, such as will bring the very best operators to the south, where they are most need- ed on the single line track roads, they are certain of the co-operation of the engineers, conductors and train- men, all of whom are dependent to a large extent upon the ability of the operators. They also believe that they will have the sympathy and sup- port of the public, if only on selfish grounds that all travelers want com- petent and experienced men to han- dle the train orders, which is a most responsible part in the handling of trains, both to property and human life.

Two Spanish Admirals Dead.

Madrid, Feb. 12.—The deaths are announced at Cartagena of Vice Ad- miral Sanchez Ocana and Rear Ad- miral Martinez Illescas.

COL. FARROW BREATHES LAST.

Was a Prominent Figure in Political History of Georgia After War.

Atlanta, Feb. 12.—There passed from life Sunday in this city a man whose name was closely connected with the most stirring events in the political history of South Carolina and Georgia. He was Colonel Henry Patallo Farrow, who died Sunday af- ternoon at 3:15 o'clock at the resi- dence of his son-in-law, John A. Whitner, from valvular disease of the heart, at the ripe old age of 73.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at the residence of Mr. Whitner, and the interment will be in Oakland cemetery, the four grandsons of the deceased, acting as pallbearers.

Up to a few years ago, when he re- tired from the active participation in the business and political affairs of life, Colonel Farrow led an event- ful life. In the later years of his life he was a patriarchial figure, a snow-white, luxuriant beard lending dignity and distinction to a face whose features and expression were an earn- est picture of character and spirit of the man.

Mr. Farrow is survived by two daughters.

Early in life Colonel Farrow took an active part in politics and contin- ued to do so up to a few years ago, when he retired to his country home, "Queen of the Mountains," at Por- ter Springs, Lumpkin county, thirty miles from Gainesville.

Thomas Edison 60 Years Old.

New York, Feb. 12.—Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, was 60 years of age Monday. In an interview on Sunday he said it was now time for him to knock off work and play a while. "For 45 years I have been making experiments with electricity," said Mr. Edison, "but all these years I have been turning these experiments to commercial value so fast that I have not had a chance to play with electricity for the fun of the thing, just to see how much I can find out about it. But from Tuesday, I am going to give up the commercial end work in my laboratory purely as a sci- entists. That will be the pleasure I have long been promising myself."

Confessed to Murder.

Essen, Germany, Feb. 12.—The mystery of the murder of Miss Made- laine Lake, daughter of a British army officer, whose mutilated body was found on October 1, last, in the city park, has been solved. Edward Land, 20 years old, surrendered him- self at the police station here Satur- day, charging himself with being the murderer of Miss Lake. He inform- ed the police that he formerly was an employe of the Rhine-Westpha- lian coal syndicate, and fled to Bel- gian after the murder. His con- science, tormenting him and being without any money, Land returned to Essen, determined to confess and take the punishment for his crime.

Wounded Wife; Killed Self.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—After writing a letter saying he would make a final effort at recognition with his wife and failing, kill her and himself so he could be with her in death Anton J. Vodica, a machinist, dangerously wounded his wife and killed himself. A postscript to his letter says: "I hope Thaw will be a free man be- fore long. I think he was justified in killing White. I wish him suc- cess."

The Jap- anese are said to be causing a delay in the collection of customs at Dalny until the port of New Chwang is opened, in order to save duty on shipments by Japanese.

ENGLISH ARSENAL MAGAZINE EXPLODES

Huge Hole In the Ground Is All That Marks

SITE OF WOOLWICH ARSENAL

Concussion Was Felt In Towns Forty Miles Distant—No Loss of Life, but Buildings for Miles Around Were Generally Wrecked.

Woodwich, Eng., Feb. 12.—A huge hole in the ground is all that marks the site of the chemical research de- partment of the Woolwich arsenal and the cordite magazine, which exploded early Monday morning with such ter- rible force that the concussion was felt in towns forty miles distant, and the whole countryside was thrown into a panic, owing to the belief that a violent earthquake occurred. There was no loss of life, but buildings for miles around were wrecked.

Within a few minutes after the ex- plosion, thousands of terror-stricken people, many of them half-clad, be- gan to throng towards the arsenal.

There were large holes in the walls of neighboring houses and on all sides shattered doors and windows and wrecked roofs testified to the appal- ling force of the explosion.

The arsenal and magazine were practically swept away, the big blocks of stone of which they were construct- ed, being scattered for hundreds of yards on all sides.

Yesterday being Sunday, there was no night shift working, hence the ab- sence of casualties.

The people of Bainbridge, 40 miles distant, were thrown into a panic by the shock of the explosion, while in nearer by towns windows were shattered and chimneys demolished.

The cause of the disaster has not yet been ascertained.

Lightning Rod Agent Killed.

Monticello, Ga., Feb. 12.—News has reached Monticello that Mr. Em- mett Newton, a prominent young planter, living five miles from here on the Machen road, shot and killed a lightning rod agent by the name of C. P. Dorsey. Dorsey was from East Point. The tragedy occurred in the public road near Machen, and is said to be the result of Dorsey having made improper proposals to New- ton's wife while alone at her home. There were several eye-witnesses to the killing. The report says that Dorsey entered Mr. Newton's home in the absence of the latter and fright- ened Mrs. Newton away from home, Dorsey being in a drunken condition. Details are very meager.

Negro Stabbed to Death.

Atlanta, Feb. 12.—Robert James Moore, a negro, was almost instant- ly stabbed to death Sunday night at 8 o'clock by an unknown negro at the corner of Crumley and Reid Sts. The two negroes became engaged in an altercation, and suddenly one drew a knife and struck savagely with it, using it as one would a dagger, the blade of the knife piercing the left lung, doing fatal work, the internal hemorrhage being so copious that the wounded negro sank to the pavement and expired in a few moments after- wards without being able to speak. Bystanders who saw the occurrence gave the alarm and then gave chase to the negro, who wielded the knife but he escaped.

Robber Breaks Woman's Neck.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 12.—With robbery as his evident purpose, Mrs. Mercedes Donovan, wife of Eugene V. Donoxan, an officer of the Mem- phis fire department, was felled by an unknown assailant with a blow which broke her neck while she was returning from a shopping tour, ac- companied by her 3-year-old daugh- ter and several other children. The attack occurred within a short distance of Mrs. Donovan's home in a thick- ly populated section of the city. She died within a short time after being removed to her home. As to wheth- er the highwayman was a negro or a white man, has not been definitely established. Several suspects have been arrested.

NEED VINOL

for it hastens recovery by creating strength

Our local druggist, W. M Johnson, says: "There is just one thing the matter with a person who has been sick—that is, weakness.

"To all such people in Gainesville we recommend our delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, as the very best strength creator for convalescents we have ever sold in our store.

"Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates an appetite, promotes sound sleep, makes rich, red blood, and builds up a depleted system to health and vigor.

"This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal and strength creating elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

"We return money to those who buy Vinol and receive no benefit."—W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

PUBLIC ROAD WEST.

Work Under Direction of Overseers Thigpin and Waits Progressing.

Just as the three-fourths of a mile stretch of the public road west from the city limits via the University buildings towards Hogtown creek was finished, Overseer C. L. Thigpin had the misfortune to the serious accident which was recalled in The Sun of Tuesday, having sustained a broken leg in a runaway, which necessitated the amputation of his left foot. Mr. Thigpin was riding to camp on a load of hay which had been purchased for the road teams, when the runaway occurred.

This work has been thoroughly done under the supervision of Messrs. Thigpin and Waits. The material used is a mixture of clay and sand. The roadway is twenty feet wide, with a substantial packing of material of proper thickness, and will stand for years with proper attention.

It was the intention to begin the work of construction from Hogtown creek west today, but owing to the accident which has befallen Overseer Thigpin, it is doubtful whether or not this work will be taken up within the next few days. It has been determined, however, to build about three-fourths of a mile over this stretch in a short time of the same material employed on this side of the creek.

AN ALLEGED MURDERER.

Deputy Sheriff Walker Made an Important Arrest in West End.

Deputy Sheriff I. C. Walker, who is one of Sheriff Fennell's most efficient assistants, arrested in Wilcox Saturday one Johnnie Johnson, alias John Tucker, a negro who is alleged to have committed murder in Polk county two years ago, made his escape, and has since been successful in evading the officers. The officer found him in one of the camps near Wilcox.

Johnson denies any knowledge of the murder, and says he is not the party wanted, but Sheriff J. R. Wiggins of Bartow arrived in the city Monday and left Tuesday for Polk county with the prisoner for identification.

Card of Thanks.

When our little baby boy, Bennie, fifteen months old, was suffering from affection which ended in his recent death, the people of Gainesville proved to us that they were Christians, even if strangers, and in the goodness of their hearts they made us feel that God was everywhere. In Georgia, Florida and Alabama, where our duty has called us, we have found no truer Samaritans than in this lovely Florida town. They did all they could for our darling in his suffering, they wept with us by his grave and they sympathize with us in our sorrow. We thank them. God will pay them—if we lived a thousand years we can never—but we can pray for the people and press of Gainesville for their humanitarian acts of kindness to the "strangers within their gates."

Tired Nervous Women Make Unhappy Homes

MRS. NELLIE MAKHAM

A nervous irritable woman, often on the verge of hysterics, is a source of misery to everyone who comes under her influence, and unhappy and miserable herself.

Such women not only drive husbands from home but are wholly unfit to govern children.

The ills of women act like a fire brand upon the nerves, consequently seven-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, the "blues", sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some organic derangement.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness alternating with extreme irritability? Do you suffer from pains in the abdominal region, backache, bearing-down pains, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, and almost continually cross and snappy? If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous troubles of women than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

Mrs. Nellie Makham, of 151 Morgan St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was a wreck from nervous prostration.

MRS. GEO. A. JAMES

I suffered so I did not care what became of me, and my family despaired of my recovery. Physicians failed to help me. I was urged to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I want to tell you that it has entirely cured me. I think it is the finest medicine on earth and I am recommending it to all my friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Geo. A. James, a life long resident of Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was in a terribly run down condition and had nervous prostration caused by female trouble, in fact I had not been well since my children were born. This condition worked on my nerves and I was irritable and miserable. I had tried many remedies without getting much help but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me back to health and strength. It has also carried me safely through the Change of Life. I cannot too strongly recommend your medicine."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to communicate promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

HYACINTHS ARE BAD IN LAKE SANTA FE

Millions of Them Are Blocking Lake and Causing Trouble.

NAVIGATION IS THREATENED

The Hyacinths Have Not Only Proved a Nuisance in Lake, But Have Choked Canal to Such Extent that Vessels Find Navigation Very Tedious.

The water hyacinths have proved a nuisance to navigation and in other ways in Lake Santa Fe and the canal which connects Waldo and Melrose for some time, but recent reports from the nuisance are to the effect that they are now worse than ever, blocking the canal to such an extent that it has made navigation a serious and tedious problem.

Several years ago there was not to be found in Florida waters such a thing as the hyacinth, which have now become so detrimental to the majority of navigable streams and many lakes. It is said that a plant was brought from the North by an admirer of its beauty, who placed the same in a fountain pool upon her lawn on Lake Crescent, where she owned a beautiful home. The plant thrived and multiplied so rapidly that this immense pool was soon filled, when the gardener relieved the pool of its over-burden and threw the water into the lake. Here they seemed to rapidly multiply, the winds blowing them into Deep creek and out into the St. Johns river. While it was noted that the plant mutiplied rapidly, no serious attention was paid to the matter of getting rid of them. Each year they became more numerous, until they became a menace to navigation on that mighty stream, filling also the tributary streams, until the government was compelled to take action in destroying the pest, in which experts, with the expenditure of vast sums of money, have never been success-ful.

In some manner the hyacinths began to grow and thrive and multiply in the inland lakes, with the result that millions may now be seen in Lake Santa Fe.

Navigators and fishermen are particularly anxious that some effective means of destruction will be discovered.

Friends of Road Overseer C. L. Thigpin, who sustained injuries in a runaway Monday afternoon which necessitated the amputation of his left foot just above the ankle, will be glad to learn that the patient, who is at the Sanitarium, is resting as easily as could be expected. He is attended by his good wife, which as a matter of course is a great consolation to him.

In speaking of the operation Tuesday, one of the surgeons stated that Mr. Thigpin bore up under the amputation with remarkable bravery and coolness, and that, realizing his condition, he is accepting the situation with commendable grace.

The patient is now considered out of all danger. It will be some time before the wound is sufficiently healed to permit him coming out, but he will be enabled, by the use of an artificial foot, to get around quite conveniently.

Nothing could be heard regarding the condition of the negro driver, McIntyre, yesterday, but inasmuch as his attending physician stated that there would be no serious results from his misfortune, it is supposed he is resting easily.

A Delightful Affair.

Mrs. Cadwallader entertained at Five Hundred Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Mayer. There were four tables, and the contest was a most interesting one, demonstrating remarkable cleverness in several players. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon, and altogether the affair was one of the most enjoyable yet given here this season.

TRENTON TO THE FRONT.

Not to Be Outdone by Anything, Including Marriage Ceremonies.

The progressive town of Trenton, situated only a few miles from the Suwannee river, which has been made famous in story and song, has within the past few months began a career of progress in which her good citizens are determined not to be outdone. That progressive town has led everything in the West End in building and commerce since the railroad extension has been completed, and, not to be outdone by Gainesville in the matter of marriages, celebrated three matrimonial events on Sunday.

In the Trenton section on Sunday, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Mary Dawson and Mr. James C. Beach, two prominent young people, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. On the same day Mr. Willie J. Crosby and Miss Katie Pope were married in Trenton proper at the residence of Justice J. W. Drummond, the clever Justice performing the ceremony.

Thomas Everett and Mrs. Mae Belle Lindsay were married on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Matthews. Both are prominent in the Trenton section, and the ceremony, at which Rev. S. W. Colson officiated, was largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. Everett left on the evening train for Fort Ogden, where they will make their future home.

All the contracting parties are well known and popular, and The Sun, with other friends, extends congratulations, with the wish for a life of uninterrupted connubial bliss in each instance.

ELECTION AT MICANOPY.

Three Prominent Citizens Elected as Board of Road Trustees.

The special road tax district election for Micanopy district was held at Micanopy Tuesday, when J. N. Craig, J. D. Merry and Dr. H. L. Montgomery were elected as road trustees for the fiscal years of 1907-8.

This election passed off quietly, there being no excitment or opposition of note. Thirty-five votes were cast, thirty-two of which were in favor of a tax levy of five mills and three for a tax levy of three mills. The present rate is five mills, and the people seem to be satisfied.

Went Uncalled For.

Deacon Eklen Libby of Bridgton, Me., was a man of rugged virtues and indomitable will. Some winters ago while working in his wood lot he cut his foot badly, but, bandaging the wound roughly and putting snow into his boot to stop the bleeding, continued at his work until nightfall. Said to relate, he took cold, and death resulted a few days later. A local character named Farrar was clerk and general utility man at the Cumberland House in Bridgton village at that time and was accustomed to make note on the hotel register from day to day of local events—the weather, etc. In his chronicle of this sad event he wished to indicate that Deacon Libby's death was unnecessary. The following may be seen today on one of the old registers at the Cumberland House:

"Deacon Elden Libby died today. He cut his foot badly, did not have the wound attended to and went to meet his God uncalled for."

He Paid the Charges.

A guest who had just registered at a hotel was approached by a boy with a telegram. It had $1 charges on it.

"What!" said the guest before opening it. "A dollar charges! I won't pay it. Anybody who cannot pay for his message when wiring me is certainly a cheap one. Wait a minute. I'll just let you report this uncollected, and the sender may pay the charges."

At that he tore the envelope open. As he read a smile settled on his face, and, pulling a dollar from his pocket, he handed it to the boy.

"It's all right," he said.

Then he threw the message on the counter. "Read it!" he said to the clerk. The message read:

Papa's little girl sends him fifty bushels of love and wishes he was home to kiss her good night. NELLIE.

Storm Words.

"Typhoon" is by no means the only word for a storm that has come to the English language through Portuguese and Spanish. Others are "tornado" and "hurricane," which Shakespeare could still write "hurricano." Old time Englishmen, at any rate, spelled the last word in at least as many ways as Shakespeare and other people spelled his name, and some of the spellings indicate frantic attempts to make the word suggest a derivation intelligible to the English mind. Of such are "furicane," "hurlecan," "Herocane" and "Harry-Cain." Even "hurricane" was finally adopted no doubt as suggesting "hurry." The original was the Carib "huracan," or "furacan," the navigators of Portugal and Spain having been instrumental only in bringing it to England from the west, as they brought "typhoon" from the east.

A Considerate Actress.

A doctor saw Julia Marlowe as Juliet one night in Pittsburg and was tremendously impressed. Only in the powerful death scene there was a technical error. "Miss Marlowe," the doctor said at a reception the next day, "I admired your Juliet profoundly. The impersonation was a work of art. But, pardon me, don't you know that a corpse doesn't stiffen for at least six hours after death?" Miss Marlowe answered in the drawl that she reserves for such speeches, "Now, doctor, do you think I'm going to keep my audiences waiting six hours for me to stiffen?"

DEATH CLAIMS JUDGE HANSELL.

Distinguished Georgia Jurist Passes Away at Thomasville.

Thomasville, Ga., Feb. 12.—Judge Augustus H. Hansell died Sunday at his home here. The immediate cause of his death was a fracture of the hip bone, caused by a fall ten days ago.

He was born in Milledgeville in 1817, and was 89 years old at the time of his death. He was the oldest Mason in the state, having joined in 1838 at Milledgeville, and the Masonic lodges of Thomas county attended his funeral at the Presbyterian church Monday at 3 o'clock. Six of his grandsons acted as his pallbearers.

Judge Hansell was admitted to the bar in 1838. He was elected solicitor general of the southern circuit by the legislature of 1847, and judge of the same circuit in 1849. He served as judge until Jan. 1, 1903, with the exception of six years, from 1853 to 1859, when he refused to serve. He was removed by reconstruction in 1865, but was re-elected in 1873, and served continuously until 1903. He was a member of the secession convention in 1861, and of the constitutional convention in 1877. He served in the Indian war when but 18 years of age, on the staff of General Stafford, of Milledgeville. He did not serve in the confederate war on account of his position as judge, but was on the relief committee, which was sent to Atlanta during the siege to relieve the sick and wounded.

Four Murder Cases.

Jeffersonville, Ga., Feb. 12.—Jackson superior court is in session. The criminal docket was taken up Monday. There are fuor murder cases to be tried. The one of most interest is the murder of Marshal Jim Hammond by Will Bolton, at Statham, on the night of February 1. Bolton was intoxicated, and Marshal Hammond went to him admonishing him to go home, whereupon he began shooting at the officer, one ball passing through his coat over the left shoulder, the other piercing his heart, killing him instantly. He confessed to te killing before the coroner's jury. That jury made a verdict of cold-blodded murder.

Risks His Life to Save Son.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 12.—Alderman J. C. Tyson was painfully injured in an effort to rescue his little son from what seemed certain death in front of a runaway team. Mr. Tyson had a rib broken, and sustained internal injuries, but will recover. Neither the boy nor the pony were hurt specially, though both were bruised.

Alabama Man Found Murdered.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 12.—The body of John A. Finley, a well-known young man, of Montgomery, 24 years of age, and unmarried, was found dead Sunday in a lonely spot in the southwestern edge of the city. The throat was cut from ear to ear; and there were 45 terrible gashes in the face and neck. The crime was evidently that of a fiend or fiends, or a person with terrible malice. The knowledge that Finley had money and that his pockets were turned inside out indicate that robbery was a partial motive for the crime.

House Honors Late Member.

Washington, Feb. 12.—A special train bearing the body of the late Representative John E. Rixey, of Virginia, who died in this city Saturday, left Washington at 10 o'clock on Monday for Culpepper, Va., where burial took place in the afternoon. Accompanying the body were members of the late congressman's family, the committee of his colleagues in the house and honorary pall-bearers.

Frye Inimical to Savannah.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Senator Frye, chairman of the senate committee on commerce, which has under consideration the rivers and harbors bill, is opposed to the appropriation of a million dollars for the harbor of Savannah, and openly expresses his opposition. Senator Clay has secured permission to appear before this committee and will urge the appropriation. Senator Frye says that his opposition is because the proposed appropriation is out of proportion to the importance of the harbor.

Girl Jailed for 45 Cents.

Gadsden, Ala., Feb. 12.—The sentence of Miss Grace Robinson to 12 days in jail and to pay a fine of $10 by W. D. Adams, a justice of the peace, in Alabama City, has created much indignation here. Miss Robinson is a refined and educated young lady, 16 years old, who resides with her parents in Alabama City. The charge against her is obtaining goods under false pretences, she having bought 45 cents worth of groceries from a merchant in Alabama City.

Refugeeing from Lowlands.

Natchez, Miss., Feb. 1.—Refugees from the lowlands are mixing with the carnival visitors on the incoming trains and local packets. Eight families traveling in covered wagons arrived from the Louisiana swamps on Sunday night, and are now camped near the city limits, where they will remain until the water recedes. The guage Monday morning read 48.6 ft., 4.6 above the danger line.

WORKS OF ART MADE ASHES.

Burning of Lyndhurst, Country Home of John Wanamaker.

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—Lyndhurst, the country home of John Wanamaker, at Jenkintown, near this city, was destroyed by fire Friday night. The loss will reach $1,500,000.

Mr. Wanamaker and family were at their city residence when the fire occurred. Two valuable paintings, "Christ Before Pilate" and "Christ on Calvary," were saved.

Though no statement has been received from Mr. Wanamaker as to the loss, it is authoritatively stated that it will reach at least $1,500,000.

The house cost $1,000,000, and it contained furniture, bric-a-brac from years of collecting by Mr. and Mrs. Wanamaker. Mrs. Wanamaker's collection of Venetian glass was regarded as one of the finest. The furniture was the most serious loss. There were fifty rooms in the house, and each was furnished in the distinctive style of some period in the world's history.

Mexican Musicians.

We were listening to the playing of a military band the other night when my friend said: "Do you know that, although I have heard just about all of the best orchestras and bands in this country at different times, I have not discovered a single one that can hold a candle to Mexican musicians? Those fellows are something wonderful, all full of music, and, although half of them cannot read the language of their country, they read the music and get notes from their instruments that would really astonish you."—Columbus Dispatch.

Irritating Americanisms.

One of the most irritating of Americanisms is the use of "limb" for "branch." "Limb" for "leg" has always been accepted as an American prudery, but what is the matter with "branch?" Careful Anglophile writers are beginning now to reintroduce this latter word, but "limb" has hitherto been the transatlantic word with all authors. If it is also old English we shall not mind so much, but is it? The joke of the verse is at least 1,300 years old, but how old is the English version?—London Chronicle.

SHIPS AND GUNS.

The question of building more battleships is again under discussion in Congress, and President Roosevelt, in his letter to the chairman of the House Committee on naval affairs, urges the construction "of battleships of large displacement with their primary batteries all of one type of big guns." As the battleships at present in commission will all be comparatively worthless in a few years it is most important that such new ships as Congress may provide for shall be of the most modern type and able to more than cope with anything afloat. The size of the battleship is not the only thing to be considered, for it is acknowledged that a battleship of the Dreadnaught type would be at the mercy of a smaller ship with greater speed and armed with guns of greater size and power than the present 12-inch guns. Four 14 or 16 inch guns mounted on a vessel of much less displacement than the Dreadnaught could stand off out of the range of her fire and destroy her, or even a ship with two such guns could batter the Dreadnaught on the ancient plan of the bow and stern chasers with which the privateers of the war of 1812 were armed, which enabled them to stand off and make easy prey of a ship of greater power and a much greater broadside of lighter guns.

It requires no argument to prove that a battleship of 16,000 tons, carrying four 16-inch guns and having superior speed, would have the 20,000 ton Dreadnaught at her mercy, although the latter has ten 12-inch guns in her broadside. The faster ship will always be able to select the distance she will fight at and would naturally choose to be where her antagonist could do her the least harm.

The ship with 12-inch armor is now comparatively safe outside of the range of torpedoes, whose radius is from three to five thousand yards, because the present 12-inch naval gun is unable to pierce 12-inch armor at that distance, but a smaller battleship with large guns and with the necessary speed might inflict such damage as to lead to her sinking.

It is demonstrated that guns of 14 or 16 inch will weigh but little more than the present 12-inch naval gun, and it is not necessary to use such enormous powder charges, yet the range of these larger guns is superior to the 12-inch type. The construction of these larger guns is urged by the Chief of Ordnance of the Army, and his recommendation is based upon a long series of experiments, so his conclusions must be accepted as correct. As it is now we are following in the wake of England and are throwing away millions of dollars every year on ships and armament that have already proved to be of an obsolete type, and yet our tottering Republican politicians seem determined to perpetuate a type of ships and guns which will soon be turned over to the junk heap. They persist in providing for shells that experience proves will not penetrate the armor of a battleship at the distance that the known range of torpedoes compels the commander of a battleship to place his vessel at, notwithstanding that experiments have proved that shells which explode on contact are available and the present shells in use are comparatively worthless.

The committees of the House and Senate on naval affairs must wake up and learn their lesson and not continue in a rut that will bring disaster if we shall be so unfortunate as to engage in a war with a first class naval power. Uncle Sam must have the best and the most modern ships, guns and projectiles that the ingenuity of our inventors is offering, and the expense of experimenting with the new ideas offered is but a small matter compared to the millions we are annually expending that are wasted.

The militarization of the derelict republic of Cuba has been ordered by Gov. Magoon with the imperial addition of compulsory service. President Roosevelt's plan is evidently to bolster up the government with a strong army, so that during and after the election the kickers can be coped with. The colored patriots there will find as hard a row to hoe as the negroes here do, when it comes to holding office under a Republican administration.

It was very sweet to see the Presidential lion lie down with the Senatorial lamb over the settlement of the kind of investigation there should be over the Brownsville affair, but from the published accounts of the last Gridiron dinner the lion evidently has not yet one of the lamb inside of him, for Senator Foraker let out yells that could be heard a mile when the Presidential mastication was attempted.

The people having legislated "again" the railroads, trusting soon to get reasonable rates, the railroads are hitting back by charging full rates for the transportation of soldiers, horses and their equipment. In this the railroads have evidently got the best of us, for while our reasonable rates are still in the future the railroads are charging both ourselves and the government all the traffic will bear.

A Chinaman in writing of America in The National Hospital Record says: "Yet the women are to be pitied too. On festive occasions they are dragged around a room to the accompaniment of the most hellish music." He must have seen some two steps to rag time at a summer hotel.

It will cost the American taxpayer $81,500,000 to support the army for the fiscal year beginning July 1, which is an increase of over $10,000,000 from the present year.

THE SACRED LOTUS.

Sentiment of the Orient About the Fruit of Destiny.

Concerning the rich fruit of the lotus, which grew luxuriantly in the Nile, many charming legends have been told. It was believed that it was so delightful that those who ate of it would never leave the spot where it grew, but for it would abandon home and friends to spend their lives in a dream of serene delight. Homer, in the Odyssey, mentions the lotus eaters who lived on the northern coast of Africa and records their attempts to detain the followers of Ulysses by giving them the fruits of the lotus to eat, so that they should never wish to leave the spot where it grew.

The same poetical idea is known to the Arabs, who call it the "fruit of destiny," which is to be eaten in Paradise, and it is on this foundation that Tennyson built his charming poem of the "Lotus Eaters." This mythical lotus has been identified by several botanists with that indigenous to Tunis, which is a thorny shrub, with berries the size of an olive.

Mungo Park found a species of lotus in Central Africa bearing berries of a delicious taste, which on being dried and pounded made wholesome and pleasant bread. The lotus fruit found in Tunis has a stimulating, almost intoxicating, effect, and it is therefore probable that this plant furnished the foundation of the ancient legends.

WHEN WAGES WERE LOW.

And a Turkey Dinner For Six Cost Only 17 Cents.

"Columbus," said an antiquary of Chicago, "got a salary of $320 a year—less than a dollar a day. His captains got $180 a year apiece. His crew got $2.25 a month. To equip the expedition that discovered America cost $2,-800. The total cost of discovering America was $7,200.

"Lawyers nowadays, especially corporation lawyers, think nothing of earning a million a year. In the reign of Edward IV. a baronet entered in his diarnal, or diary:

"'Paid to Roger Fylpott, learned in the law, for his counsel, 3 shillings, with fourpence for his dinner.'

"Ministers often make today $20,000 or $30,000 a year, yet John Knox only got $220 a year, or $4 a week, and that was a dollar more a week than Scottish judges got.

"Small salaries, those," concluded the antiquary, "but we must remember that in that epoch there were no trusts to inflate prices, and a dollar went a long way. In fact, a Christmas dinner for a family of six would have cost in John Knox's time: For the turkey, 10 cents; cranberry sauce, 2 cents; potatoes, 1 cent; turnips, 1 cent; celery, 1 cent; plum pudding, 2 cents; total, 17 cents, or less than 3 cents a head."

Friendship With Wild Life.

If a fairy had ever offered to grant me three wishes, "the full confidence of wild animals" would surely have been one of them and probably the first. If we seek opportunities to befriend wild creatures and take advantage of them, we shall often find, as I have done, that there is no lack of response on the part of the animals. I once walked up to a pine siskin, as he was feeding on the ground and picked him up in my hand. He did not seem a bit alarmed, and when a few minutes later I set him down he continued his search for food within a few inches of my feet. On another occasion a yellow throated vireo allowed me to lift her from her nest when I wished to count her eggs and nestled down comfortably on her treasures the moment I put her back. With a forefinger I once stroked the back of a red breasted nuthatch as he was busy feeding on a tree.—Ernest Harold Baynes in St. Nicholas.

An Answered Prayer.

"I sent my little girl," writes a correspondent, "to the butcher's with 50 cents to buy some steak. She came home 10 cents short in change and was sent back for the missing coin. Presently the butcher's boy called with the dime and explained that his employer had found out his mistake, although they had seen nothing of my little daughter. The time went on, and I felt anxious until I heard her singing merrily in the garden. 'Did you go back to the butcher's?' I asked. 'No, mother, it is such a long way, so I asked God to send for the dime. Has it not come yet?'"

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Rur-nett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland ...dney trouble for years and after ... bottles of Foley's Kidney ... better than I have for ... I am now 91

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy, brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.

Had the Rector Running Mad.

A good many years ago, when metropolitan dailies were not run so well as they are now, ridiculous typographical mistakes happened frequently. One of the papers had two separate articles, one on a sermon and the other on a mad dog, which were of course to go under different headings. In some way both were set up together. In the morning the editor was horrified to see the following article:

"The Rev. James Thompson, rector of St. Andrew's church, preached to a large concourse of people Sunday. This was his last sermon. In a few weeks he will bid farewell to his congregation, as his physician has advised him to cross the Atlantic. He exhorted his brethren and sisters and after offering a devout prayer (here is where the articles ran together) took a whim to cut up some frantic freaks. He ran up Timothy street to Johnson and down Benefit street to College. At this stage of the proceedings a couple of boys seized him, tied a tin kettle to his tail, and he again started. A great crowd collected, and after some trouble he was shot by a policeman."

Rising From the Grave.

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertwell, of Lucama, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at all druggists'. Price only 50c.

Return of the Prodigal.

"I do play in tough luck sometimes," declared the impecunious girl. "Last night, you remember how it rained. I happened to be in the neighborhood of some friends of mine whom I had not seen since the last hard rain. I concluded to call. Before they asked me in they grabbed the umbrella I carried, hurried across the room with it, placed it in a closet there and locked the door on it.

"'Thank heaven!' they cried. 'At last! Our long lost umbrella!'"—New York Press.

A Stitch in Time

Will save nine. So will a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup always kept on hand save many a spell of sickness. A sure cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis and whooping coughs. Mrs. S——, Hot Springs, Ark., writes: "I keep a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my medicine chest, and thank my forethought many times. It has prevented many severe spells of sickness." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Mastered the Q.

Hundreds of people have cured themselves of impediments in speech. One of last year's majors as a young man used to find it almost impossible to pronounce words beginning with a "q." Every day for months he used to walk across St. James' park practicing this sentence aloud. "A quantity of quicksilver quietly quartered in a quagmire," until he conquered the impediment. Today he is one of the most fluent speakers in England.—London Tit-Bits.

A Baby

Should be sunshine in the house, and will be if you give it White's Cream Vermifuge, the best worm medicine offered to suffering humanity. This remedy is becoming the permanent fixture of all households. A mother with children can't get along without a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge in the house. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

GRIM OLD CROMWELL.

The Protector Made Christmas a Gloomy and Serious Day.

"Christmas was illegal in Cromwell's time," said an antiquary. "Those grim old Puritans were so gloomy that they would not have any gayety even on Christmas day.

"Cromwell said that holly and mistletoe were heathenish things. He said that they had no real Christian significance; they were a part of some pagan festival of the Druids. Accordingly he made a law that if you decorated your house with mistletoe at Christmas you got thirty days in jail.

"The terrible old fellow forbade Christmas celebrations—no dancing, no singing, no playgoing, no feasting on Christmas day; penalty, thirty days.

"You see, it was his idea that Christmas was a religious, a serious time, a time for churchgoing and prayer and reverence and for nothing else. The innocent family that in Cromwell's day sat down to turkey and plum pudding and wound up with Christmas games got a month all round.

"Only for a time, though. The people rebelled. Willing as the people had been to put on the gloom of those dreadful old Puritans, they insisted on having a little joy on Christmas day, and Cromwell after a year or two had to give in to them."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed, and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alone; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one-dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed at all druggists'. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The French Idea.

The Frenchman of the middle class sacrifices everything in order to obtain for his children some official position or other, a mean one, perhaps, but a sure one, leading after thirty years of penury to a pension verging on destitution. This is one aspect of the decay of the French race. It is easy to understand that two races are not evenly armed for the struggle for life if one be made up of aspirants to official position and the other of individuals possessing initiative, daring and energy. For this reason do Latin races decline, while Anglo-Saxon races grow and multiply.—Paris Siecle.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures la grippe cough and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

It Was Tough.

The waiter girl knew a thing or two about table etiquette, so she sniffed scornfully as she said, "It's not our custom to serve a knife with pie." "No?" remarked the patron in surprise. "Then bring me an ax."—Christian Register.

A Valuable Lesson.

"Six years ago I learned a valuable lesson," writes John Pleasant of Magnolia, Ind. "I then began taking Dr. King's New Life Pills, and the longer I take them the better I find them." They please everybody. Guaranteed at all druggists'. 25c.

THE STRANGLING FIG.

A Curious Tropical Tree That Lives Upon Other Trees.

Visitors to Mexico and other tropical countries often have their attention called to "the strangling fig"—a tree that commences its growth as an epiphyte—that is, one form of plant life that grows perched on another—far up on the trunk or among the branches of another tree, usually on a palmetto or some of the kinds of palms. The roots of the strangling tree extend downward around the host tree to the ground, gradually joining together, making a tubelike mass of roots sometimes as much as six feet or more in diameter.

When the attacked tree is a palm death to it is caused not so much by the binding around the trunk as by shading out its branches by the attacking tree.

When the attacked tree is an exogen—that is, one with wood and bark—the attacking roots bind so tightly as to cause a stoppage of the flow of the sap. As the sap of a tree is really its food (changed by the leaves so that it can be used) and the flow of the food is thus stopped, the attacked tree is really "starved" to death. So death to the attacked tree is caused either by smothering or by starvation or by both.

The peculiar manner in which the flattened roots extend down and around the tree give them the appearance of some thick, slow flowing material running down the tree.—St. Nicholas.

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Bow and Arrow Fishing.

In the south seas and in various groups of islands in the Indian ocean the aborigines shoot fish with the bow and arrow. The art is extremely difficult, as in taking aim at an object under water the archer has to allow for refraction. If he were to aim directly at the fish as he sees it, he would, of course, miss. Long practice has, however, made the natives expert to a wonderful degree in this sport.—London Saturday Review.

Hunting for Trouble.

"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters of Alleghany, Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 25c.
